

Ministry of Social Security and Labour
of the Republic of Lithuania

Children emotional health: what achievements the countries can be proud of and what challenges remain unresolved

November 5th, 2020 (Thursday)
Online

AGENDA

Institution	Topic	Speaker
Check-in online
Ministry of Social Security and Labour of the Republic of Lithuania	Word of Welcome	Minister of Social Security and Labour Linas Kukuraitis
Council of the Baltic Sea States Secretariat	Opening remarks	Director General Grzegorz M. Poznański
Lithuanian Pupils' Union	Happy children and youth: what solutions do we need?	President of LPU Sara Aškinytė LPU coordinator Karolina Pralgauskytė
Lithuanian University of Health Sciences	Children's lifestyles and emotional health: have we achieved significant change?	Prof. dr. Kastytis Šmigelskas
UNICEF Lithuania	Worlds of Influence: Understanding what shapes well-being of the Child in rich countries	Executive director Erika Vėberytė
BREAK
World Health Organization	Happier and healthier children: what recommendations would help Europe achieve this?	Programme Manager for Mental Health Dan Chisholm Child and Adolescent Health and Development Division, Martin Weber
Finnish Institute for Health and Welfare, Welfare and Health Promotion Unit	Finland's National Mental Health Strategy and Suicide Prevention Program 2020-2030 and Non-Violent Childhood Action Plan 2020-2025	Development Manager Ulla Korpilahti
Ministry of Health of the Republic of Lithuania	2020 – a year of children's emotional well-being: situation overview	Head of the Mental Health Unit Ignas Rubikas
Discussion, summary of the event		